Tuesday Bible Study

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide. It features a Celtic cross, which is a cross with four interlocking loops or knots at the ends of its arms. The cross is made of a light-colored, textured stone or parchment material. The loops are filled with a dark, rusted metal, possibly iron or bronze, giving it an ancient or historical appearance. The cross is positioned diagonally, with its top-left corner pointing towards the top-left of the slide.
